

CLSA LOS ANGELES CHAPTER Membership:

What are the benefits to you at the local chapter? The Los Angeles Chapter is locally governed. The Executive committee consists of Land Surveyors who either live in or work in the Los Angeles Community. Many of the Executive Committee also sit on various boards such as College of the Canyons Survey Advisory Committee. Each of the Committee members are committed to bettering the Land Surveyors Community.

- Chapter Monthly Meetings ... usually the first Thursday of each month. Speakers are chosen for their topics of relativity to what is happening now in our industry.
- Monthly Newsletter ... to keep us informed within our chapter
- LS Review Seminar ... annual seminar held over a 16 week period to assist LSIT's in obtaining their Surveying license. Seminar taught by multiple PLS in their field of specialty
- Representation at the State level including one member on the State's Executive Committee ... we let the State know the needs of the Los Angeles Surveying Community. Our Professional Practices Committee Chairperson also sits on the State PPC Committee.
- Education Foundation being established to assist our local surveying students
- New 2009 LS Membership package ... with confirmed State and LA Chapter membership - various vendor provided coupons for use during the 2009 year.
